Foreword

TO very many of you the end of June marks the culmination of your High School career. As a graduating class you have reached a crossroad as you bid C.C.I. fellow-students and staff good-bye. Part of the road lies behind you, the rest ahead. As you look back over a somewhat difficult journey, your memories will be tinged with regret as well as pleasure. What a host of recollections the words C.C.I. will bring to your minds—lifelong friendships, intimate association with teachers and students over a three or four year period, busy halls and classrooms, laughter, rugby games, basketball games, track meets, awards day assemblies, graduation exercises, the hush of the examination room! As you look ahead, you feel a sense of accomplishment and of being ready for larger and wider experiences. The future belongs to you. Be ready to meet it with courage and optimism. Do not resemble 'one of those little places that have run half-way up a hill and then sat down to rest as if to say: "I climb no further upward, come what may!"' Remember that accomplishment is always the result of effort, and that effort may mean the sacrifice of personal time and pleasure. Never give up striving to reach the goal ahead of you. In these times of stress and strife it may seem impossible to choose an occupation that is not already overcrowded. Because of circumstances some cannot be trained for the work they might otherwise have chosen. Despite this fact do not lose sight of your ideals. The hardships which you endure now and endeavor to overcome are character builders. Do not forget that you all have a place to fill and a duty to perform, and it is your responsibility to take advantage of every opportunity that presents itself.

May I take this opportunity of congratulating Don Macpherson and his competent staff on an excellent publication, and John Butt and his advertising staff for making the publication of the ANALECTA possible.

Good luck everybody!

F. D. WEIR.

WHEN we, as trembling youngsters, first converged upon this venerated structure, graduation seemed to us a nebulous event of the far distant future. Its current arrival is all too real.

Our sojourn here has been more than a mere three or four years spent in attempting, with carying success, to solve the mysteries of chemical equations, trigonometry identities or Latin prose. We have been drawn together by a common feeling of elation when our teams were victorious or of deflation if they were not. New experiences have confronted us but it took us only a short time to discover that our school has an uncanny skill for producing a friend in any need. We are all proud to claim Central as our alma mater even though, I daresay, there are any number of us who have vowed, that on accumulation of their first million, they would donate a new heating and insulating system, not to mention a fume-proof chem. lab., to the school. However, no physical shortcomings can overshadow the benefits which we have derived from our high school education at Central. That we have been able to absorb at least a little of the sincerity, honesty, and true enjoyment of life, which is the very essence of this school, has been, and is, our sincere desire.

When we review this brief, but so memorable period of our lives, there is one group to which we must give special thanks for its success. Our teachers. That these few should have so much to give each succeeding class, has always been a source of wonder to us, for it is constantly evident that no student, however inconspicuous, leaves this school without conveying through its portals something of the essential spirit of those teachers with whom he has had the good fortune to become acquainted.

Traditionally, each graduating class leaves school with the belief that it is exceptional. We are no different. In modern times such a belief does no one any harm for it requires considerable courage and confidence to face the future in our unsettled and challenging world.

Soon we will be bidding farewell to the school days of our youth and our ways will become widely separated as we go forth into fields of business or on to institutions of higher learning. Yet, whatever the future may hold for us, let us hope that each in his or her own way will try to make ours a better world in which to live by carrying into it the Central High motto, "Lux Sit", "Let There Be Light", and by remembering that—

THREE years ago, when we of the 1952 graduating class entered this school, each one of us probably said to himself, "My, won't it be a relief when we're all finished three or four long years from now! That will be a red letter day! How glad I'll be to finish school!" This evening, on behalf of those same students I have come to tell you how sorry we are to leave and that those three long years have been altogether too short for many of us. I say that, most sincerely, for whether we, the graduates, are entirely aware of it or not, we shall come to realize that these three years have been strong, firm foundations for the careers that we are presently to pursue.

When we recall those first two or three months in Grade Ten, we remember the difficulties encountered and the barriers scaled, all symbolic of a new environment and of the hard way to success. We have had pleasant experiences too, football, games, track meets and plenty of laughs in class. And we have had trials and tests of character, a few unpleasant moments, perhaps, which have, we hope, contributed to the building of those firm foundations mentioned a moment ago.

We cannot forget the practical benefits that we have enjoyed while in Central High. For some this has meant a big step in academic achievement, for others, newly-acquired athletic skills and for still others an opportunity to develop certain flairs along special lines, such as photography, music and newspaper work, through the clubs to which the teachers give most generously of their time. But primarily, we will never forget the good basic education that Central High School has given us, the type of learning that lays the blueprints for the Canadian leaders of tomorrow. We have truly learned obedience, co-operation, and the value of knowledge.

For those great benefits we are indebted to the members of the faculty. We are indebted to them for their patience, continued faith and goodwill. They have constantly shown these attitudes towards us and have, ultimately, instilled something of those fine qualities into each of the one hundred and twenty-nine graduates present here tonight. You, the teaching staff, have been our guides on a voyage on the seas of mental adventure. You are the ones who have molded and shaped our foundations and are responsible for their hardening into structures of solid Canadian citizenship. To you we owe a debt of gratitude that can never be fully repaid!

In our future, each of us will be able to look back on a clear, cloudless picture of Central High. We shall always be proud of our associations with

In Appreciation

THE 1952 Analecta, carrying with it the achievements of Central High School in the past year, is now completed. May this book in the years to come provide many pleasant memories of your happy years at Central High.

To the staff of the Analecta I give my sincerest thanks for your unfailing co-operation in making this publication a success. I must add a special "Thank You" to Mr. Weir and Miss Calder for their kind assistance on all problems which faced the Analecta Staff. I would also like to add a word of praise to Miss Kerr, our school secretary, for the small but important jobs that she did. To the firms whose advertisements have made this book possible, we extend our sincere appreciation.

Now that the 1952 Analecta is completed, my job as Editor, one that I consider both an honor and a pleasure to hold, has come to an end. Working in close association with the Faculty and students during this past year has shown me the co-operation and spirit of unity which makes Central such a fine institution.

To you, the Grade Ten's, whose job it will be to uphold the high traditions set down by the preceding students in the history of Central High School, I dedicate this book.

—DON MACPHERSON, Editor.

DUSK AND DAWN

At eve I saw a purple pool,
A royal robe with rubies red;
Yet, as each moment flitted past,
Each regal jewel faded fast
Until one giant gem did sink
Beneath a shadowed shroud . . . Dusk spread.

Then did I feel a deathly cool,
And from the graying pool were shed
The tears of sorrow, mortal, vast.
Upon the realms of earth were cast
A pall of pain, a broken link;
From man to God a soul had fled.

A weary sun had set—for rule
Of God must be—and mortals tread
In growing grief: out from, at last,
This life a loved monarch passed—
Was missed and mourned . . . his heir will drink
The draught of duty in his stead.

At morn I see a silver stream
With ripples rosy, deep and new;
But, as each moment brighter burns,
Each glowing glint an ember turns—
And now a bright and youthful star
Has sprung to service—steady, true.

TO THE GRADUATES, 1952

The twilight of school days is fading,
The curtain of night slowly falls
Awake'ning the spirit with whispers
As memory softly recalls.

From the valley of childhood you started
And up the long hill did you go.
Through trials and hardships you plodded
The going at times was so slow.

For this was the steep hill of learning
With pebbles and rocks in the way,
But those so courageous and trusting
Found happiness each single day.

At last after long years of striving
The student ascends to the top
The pulses now race with new gladness
But hope, faith and joy must not stop.

And as you survey the great kingdom
From the top of the hill where you stand,
Just say to yourself, "I'll remember
I've been given a strong helping hand."

The valleys all nestle below you
The sky is the deepest of blue.
The bright streams flow onward to rivers
And you must go onward now, too.

As you stand surveying your childhood
The memories, thoughts of the past,
Creep into your spirit with longing
The darkness is falling so fast.

Your back is now turned from the past
Your spirit is calm and serene.
But as you look towards the future
Night's curtain encloses the scene.

—Patty Wofford.

VALEDICTORIES (Continued)

"We are atoms which float down the river of life
On our way to the ultimate sea,
And the world with its troubles, its cares and its strife
Has its changes for you and for me;
But if as the swift flowing years hurry by
We lose sight of each other at last,
Let us ever remember that we, you and I,
Were once friends in the far reaching past."

—DIANE FALK.

Central and the teachers of Central. Wherever our paths in life may lead, we shall whenever we return to Calgary always feel honored to revisit these halls and renew old acquaintances. We shall not only feel honored to return here, but we shall never forget that it is this school which has greatly helped to make us successful in our chosen careers. By being students of Central High School, we are, we feel, assured a better than even chance to use that word "successful".

At this time I would like to express the goodwill felt by members of the graduating class to the Grade tens and elevens. They too have helped make our stay here a memorable one. Next year when those students return they will find a somewhat different school from the standpoint of appearance. Looking at the new floors and desks, undoubtedly many of them will be sorry that they can no longer find their father's name carved on one of the old desks—or perhaps even their grandfather's! But seriously, we of the graduating class know that their future associations with Central will be just as pleasant and profitable to them as our associations have been to us.

As we say goodbye this evening, I do not have to search the words of Shakespeare, Longfellow or Scott for a proper quotation. Three short lines of a song well known to all Centralites express our feeling. We will always recall in years to come probably with a little nostalgia these words:

"Oh Central High in praise of thee we sing,
Across the skies your glorious echoes ring,
Your sons and daughters we are proud to be!"

—JOHN BUTT.

Doctor: "Wait a minute, you're too quick. I didn't tell you to say 'ah'."

Patient: "I know you didn't. I just caught a glimpse of your nurse."

---

Golf Pro: "Tee the ball."

Weezy: "Sure, I see it, but why the baby talk?"

Senior Girls' Y-Teen

The Senior Girls' Y-Teen concludes another very active year. The membership consisted of fifty girls from grades XI and XII.

The executive of the 1951-52 term was:

President .....	Marvey Ridley
Vice-President .....	Peggy Richardson
Secretary .....	Leonore Haw
Treasurer .....	Eta Pearlman

The year began with a welcoming party for Central's new girls. Next came preparations for the annual Tea-Zaar which was held in December. From the proceeds, eight food parcels were sent overseas to Europe, a Christmas hamper went to an English orphanage, and a donation was made to the school piano fund.

Addresses by a laboratory technician and the Fashion Counsellor from the Bay were given. They proved to be extremely interesting.

In February, the club sent a delegate to the B.C.S. Conference in Vancouver. Easter week brought active participation in the Alberta Y-Teen Conference. In the spring, the club sponsored "Rodeo Romp", honoring Central's basketball teams.

The girls of Y-Teen would like to take this opportunity to thank their advisor, Miss Jagoe, for all her wonderful help and guidance throughout the year.

Central Home and School Association

We opened the 1951-52 year with the following slate of officers:

President .....	Mrs. J. C. Butt
Vice-President .....	Mrs. Earl Newcombe
Secretary .....	Mrs. Arthur Maw
Treasurer .....	Mrs. H. B. LeBourveau

Meetings during the season have been exceptionally well attended with the average attendance being 300 members.

Our opening meeting was "A Salute to School Athletes". Dr. Andrew Stewart spoke on "Education for Civilized Living"; Mr. Alan Carscallen explained the Guidance Program and Dr. Gordon Jones addressed a meeting on the topic "Round Pegs in Square Holes". We had Open House in February, sponsored a school recital in March, and also one evening of the play "You Can't Take It With You". Our Home and School Scholarship was won by Miss Marguerite Orr, and the bursary by Miss Kay Kranz.

The annual graduating students' dance was held on Thursday, June 12th. We hope this was a happy and memorable event for the graduating class of 1952, to whom we wish the best of luck.

Inter-School Christian Fellowship

The I.S.C.F. of Calgary regards this past term as a very eventful and blessing year.

Here, in Central, we spent our time studying the Acts of the Apostles and discussing various problems.

The city-wide I.S.C.F. held an annual Toboggan and Hallowe'en Party as well as its monthly firesides. Central I.S.C.F. held two house parties, one at Janet Forster's and one at Betty Ramsay's. Also held was an excursion to Banff, featuring skating, skiing and swimming.

On Remembrance Day week-end, the I.S.C.F. held its Fall Conference, the main thought being "Leadership Training". The Spring Conference was held at a Dude Ranch west of Calgary. During the Christmas holidays three members of the city-wide I.S.C.F. went to Urbana, Illinois, to attend a world-wide Missionary Convention.

At the monthly Missionary Meetings many interesting speakers were heard.

Gamma Phi

The co-ordinating body of the Hi-Y, under the guidance of Murray Faulkner, has just completed another successful season.

The following executive was elected for 1951-52:

President .....	John Butt (Central)
Vice-President .....	Don Erb (Central)
Secretary .....	Dave Tait (Western)
Treasurer .....	Ian Gartshore (Central)

On December 7th and 8th, Gamma Phi sponsored the city's first Inter-School Hi-Y Conference.

Attending the Conference were representatives from the city's three Boys' Hi-Y Clubs and the Girls' Y-Teen.

Gamma Chi

The Inter-School Council for Senior Girls' Y-Teen is called Gamma Chi.

Early in the fall the annual Recognition Service was held at Knox United Church.

Last February two Y-Teener's were sent to Vancouver to the Western Canada Conference. Two others attended the Planning Conference in Medicine Hat. The purpose of this was to organize the Alberta Conference held in Calgary during the Easter holidays.

Central's representatives included: Marvey Ridley, Peggy Richardson and Miriam Zysblat.

FRESHMAN'S FRIDAY

On November 30th, the Boys' Hi-Y presented their annual dance, Freshman's Friday.

Arpad Braun, the capable emcee, got the stage show under way promptly. In a short time the boys had the entire audience laughing heartily. After several clever skits the Hi-Y gave a very original interpretation of Shakespeare's "All the World's a Stage" with Denis Horne as the narrator. Last but definitely not least was "Carbon" (named thus because of the dirty deed that was done). It was based on the opera Carmen. I'm sure that if Georges Bizet had heard about the performance he would have rolled over in his grave—twice! Pat Blake was the narrator while the main characters were portrayed by Skippy Fitzer, Ron Jacobson and Barry McPhee. This was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone including the actors themselves.

Then the dancing began. Wonderful prizes for spot dances, donated by various Calgary firms, kept everyone on the floor. Hats off to the Boys' Hi-Y for providing such a pleasant, fun-filled evening!

RODEO ROMP

Western tunes and Western dress livened Y-Teen's annual Rodeo Romp, held March 28th in honor of Central's basketball teams.

The dance began successfully with Mr. and Mrs. Churchill conducting the square dances. The crowd responded enthusiastically to the two skits: "The Lure of the Balzac Beanery" and "The Murder at Burpy Bert's", presented by various girls from Y-Teen. Numerous prizes, ingenious decorations and a wonderful crowd made the dance a terrific success.

COUNCIL CAPERS

On May 9th, the Students' Council held their annual dance, this year entitled "Council Capers". Betty Millard and her decoration committee did a superb job. On the stage, in all their splendor, reposed a dummy orchestra. The basketball backboards were decorated with balloons and black music notes, surrounded by chartreuse streamers hanging from the overhead lights.

Cokes were sold and spot prizes were presented. Those who attended had an enjoyable time.

INTRODUCTION DAY

The first assembly of the year was, as usual, conducted by the Boys' Hi-Y. Jim Hawkes, the chairman, introduced in a humorous manner, the members of the Staff.

The extra-curricular activities of the school were outlined by Stewart Fisher; Larry Edwards enumerated the various sports in which students might take part.

Mr. Churchill, a senior member of the staff, giving an inspiring talk on school spirit, encouraged the Grade X's to assume their share of school responsibilities.

AWARDS DAY

The Awards Day of 1952 was held on June 17th. The Frances Woolverton Memorial Cup was presented to the best all-round girl, while the school's all-round boy was presented with the Murray Law Memorial Cup.

Letter crests and letter pins were presented for athletic achievement as well as for participation to the outstanding boys and girls.

The Barbara Lowry Memorial Trophy and the Kappa Kappa Tau Memorial Sweaters were also presented.

Cups, Shields and Plaques, won in the various events, were given to the captains of the winning teams.

GRADUATION DANCE

On June 12th the Central Home and School Association presented the annual banquet and dance, that was held in honor of the 1952 graduates.

The streamers and balloons, decorating the gymnasium, gave the hall a gala appearance. The music for the dances was supplied by the P.A. system.

The climax of the dance came when the student guests were spotlighted. A lovely evening was brought to a close with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne".

GRADUATION EXERCISES

Commencement Exercises for the Graduating Class of '52 were held in the School Auditorium on the evening of June 10th. Parents, friends and teachers heard the class bid farewell to Central and saw them receive their scrolls, symbolic of graduation.

The opening invocation was spoken by Rev. G. Preston MacLeod, followed by a brief introduction of the guest speaker, His Worship, Mayor D. H. Mackay, by Mr. P. P. C. Haigh, acting chairman. Mayor Mackay gave a very interesting and inspiring talk to the departing boys and girls about their obligations to the world of today and their participation of community life. The graduates were then introduced by Mr. George Robinson and Mr. W. H. Brooks. Diane Falck and John Butt said good-bye to the school on behalf of the Graduating Class.

Two delightful selections by Central's Glee Club and Orchestra, under the direction of Miss Powell, brought to a close the beautiful graduation service.

Camera Club

Under the able direction of Miss Jagoe and the following executive members, the Camera Club of Central High School has terminated its fourth year of existence.

President .....	Sam Huberman
Vice-President .....	DeLores Knight
Secretary-Treasurer .....	Mel Gray
Darkroom Convener .....	Jim MacGregor

This year the club received three slide lectures from the Kodak Company. Selected members gave demonstrations on many subjects of interest to the photographic fan, such as: copying, developing, contact printing, enlarging, candid shots, trick photography, sepia toning, flash photography, etc. The active members turned in pictures on a variety of chosen subjects. At the last meeting, the pictures were judged and prizes were awarded. The annual night hike was held on May 9th. The members wish to thank Miss Jagoe for giving her time and knowledge in the direction of the club.

French Club

The French Club, consisting of twelve active members, was organized this year under the sponsorship of Miss Maxwell.

The executive were as follows:

President .....	Moyra Boyd
Secretary .....	Joan Scott

Miss Barclay, a teacher from Western Canada High School, addressed the Christmas meeting on "Customs and Life in France". On February 18th the club held its annual candy sale, net proceeds from which were contributed to the Scholarship Fund. Three playlets and a folksong were presented for the Home and School Association and the City Cercle. The members felt that the time spent in these projects was indeed worthwhile both in the friendly fellowship enjoyed and in the improvement of their French conversation.

The Glee Club

The Glee Club, comprised of sixty girls from Grades X and XI, played an active part in school activities this year.

At an evening meeting of the Home and School Association, at which time Dr. Stewart, President of the University of Alberta spoke, the Glee Club helped to entertain the members by singing several selections.

They helped to organize the program for the concert sponsored by the Home and School Association, held in March; but the highlight of their activities was singing at the Graduation Exercises.

However, without the competent direction of Miss Powell, the Glee Club would not have enjoyed such a successful year.

School Orchestra

Although the Central High School Orchestra has a very small membership, it has had a very busy and eventful year.

Orchestra practices have been held regularly every Wednesday and Friday from 12:30 to 2:00. As Western Canada High School hasn't an orchestra, several students interested in music have joined the Central club. Orchestra members may earn four school credits by active participation in this club. This year we played several selections for Senior Girls' Y-Teen Tea-Zaar. Solo numbers were also provided.

In January, our director, Miss Powell, entertained us at an evening party at which everyone had an enjoyable time. At the March Concert, sponsored by the Home and School Association, the orchestra contributed several numbers. Many members took an active part in the School Festival held in May.

Marking the close of the year, the orchestra played several numbers at the Graduation Exercises.

Any students who play musical instruments are cordially invited to join the orchestra in 1952.

Marie Kamp, Marlene Boag, Leona Larsen, Marjorie Joyce.

The Cheer Leaders

The cheer section this year was led by Marjorie Joyce, Leona Larsen, Mary Macdonald, Marie Kamp and Marlene Boag. Try-outs were held in October. Joan Gray, Helen Murray and Judy Smith were selected as the girls to lead in the coming year. Ann Baxter and Lois Lowry substituted throughout this term. All cheer leaders practiced earnestly every Thursday noon.

We watched the boys win victories,
We watched them when they fell,
They always did their best, we know,
For every team was swell.

They fought right on till bitter end
When everything went wrong.
But whether it was win or lose
We sang our High School song.

Oh Central High
In praise of thee we sing
Across the skies our glorious echoes ring
Your sons and daughters we are proud to be
Our voices swell a mighty song of victory
With spirits fair and true our teams will play
No matter what the odds we know that they
Will do their very best to score away and win the day
For Central High.

TEA-ZAAR

On the afternoon of Wednesday, December 5th, the Central Senior Girls' Y-Teen held their annual "Tea-Zaar".

A touch of old Holland was displayed, featuring variegated tulips, a wooden shoe in full sail and a windmill revolving in the breeze.

Through the kind assistance of the mothers, the tables were well stocked with bazaar articles and home cooking. A cookie and candy cane merry-go-round and gingerbread house attracted the attention of the crowd.

Honors at the tea table, centered with chrysanthemums, were shared by: Miss M. Suitor, Miss F. Todd, Miss H. Hobbs, Miss N. James, Mrs. R. Warren, Miss M. Flett, Mrs. John Butt and Mrs. J. W. Churchill.

Under the direction of Miss Powell, the Central Orchestra and Glee Club Choir provided the entertainment. Individual performers during the afternoon were Allan Sheftel, Marie Attwood, Jerry Blundun and Glenda Goodfellow.

The committee heads were: Betty Millard, decoration; Wendy Woodford, publicity; Sharon Burwash, tickets; Shirley Parkinson, bazaar table; Marion King, food; Marjorie Joyce, home cooking; Anne Marshall, equipment.

Much credit is due the members of Senior Y-Teen and their advisor, Miss Jagoe, for this successful project.

American Tourist: "How old are those disosaur bones in the cliffside?"

Boys' Athletic Association

The Boys' Athletic Association has completed another successful year under the direction of Mr. Hackett. This year's executive was as follows:

President .....	Don MacPherson
Vice-President .....	Ron Burritt
Secretary .....	Larry Edwards

The Association is composed of the leading representatives of each of the sports and athletic organizations. The purpose of the club is to organize the school's athletic activities so that they will function efficiently. Though perhaps its efforts are not noticeable, the influence and promotion of the club is certainly felt and warrants its functioning.

The year's activities include the refereeing of house league basketball games, ordering of new football equipment and the promotion of the pageant before the Track Meet in co-ordination with the cheer leaders.

Senior Football

This year's senior team, though displaying a convincing brand of ball, failed to get rolling until too late in the season. In the second last game of the schedule they defeated the power-packed St. Mary's aggregation; in their last game they lost a heart-breaking 1-0 decision to Western, the Provincial Champions. Although the team failed to recapture the provincial title, they are to be commended for their fighting spirit.

The team was capably coached by Mr. Hackett with Johnny Aquirre and Harry Hood occasionally assisting. The trainer, Bill Fayter, taped ankles, etc.

Jim Browne anchored the line from centre while Jim Parrott and Garth Milvain proved hard guards. Jerry Libin and Harry Young were two hard-charging tackles with Vic Beaudry and Winston Churchill playing steady ball as ends. Jack Bruce and Wilson Southam handled the signal-calling and were aided by the strong backfield of Larry Edwards, Les Belinski, Ron Burritt and Terry Kellam. Standouts on the defensive were Garth Milvain, Harry Young, Ron Burritt and Bob Linklater.

Ron Burritt made the All-Star Team for the second consecutive year as he was outstanding in Central's pay-dirt drives.

Co-captains Terry Kellam and Garth Milvain captured berths on the second All-Star Team as did hard-plunging Larry Edwards. Vic Beaudry and Jerry Libin also win berths on the second team.

Junior Football

The Junior Football team of 1951-52 rates among the best of Central's many great teams. The power-packed club, with its high morale, displayed spectacular ball. Large numbers turned out for practices. The championship might have come our way had not the league been cancelled because of the early snow. When the season ended, Crescent was on top with four points, Central ran a close second with three, while St. Mary's and Western followed with two and one points respectively.

Don Macpherson and Bill Carver handled the coaching duties and Bill Manarey offered his services occasionally.

The team was backed by three of the top scorers, Len Wydrzycki, Cecil Eaves and Bill McKay each obtaining five points on touchdowns. Norman Riezebos rounded out the scoring, booting two out of three converts.

Jim McLeod held down the line at the centre spot while Dick Collver and Bill Gillespie proved to be sturdy guards.

Abe Epp and Vaughn Gusa played at tackle and Bill McKay and Ted Busheikin rounded out a well-balanced line. Co-captain John Allison called signals as quarter-back and continually kept the team in high spirits.

Better luck next year, boys!

Senior Boys' Interscholastic Basketball

Central's Golden Rams this year displayed a fast-breaking, crowd-pleasing type of ball. Although facing tough opposition from Western and Crescent, all games were thrill-packed right up until the final whistle. The team barely missed in their bid for a play-off position, losing by a heart-breaking two points to the Crescent champions in the last game of the schedule. However, the Rams did play several exhibition games against various city men's teams, winning the majority.

The team was handicapped midway through the season by the loss of captain Don Macpherson who suffered a broken leg. Terry Kellam, Jim Hawkes and Jim Browne took over the guard positions and were the key men on Central's defensive play. Joe Ferguson, Robin Round and Tony Kolber, playing their first year of senior basketball, spearheaded the attack at centre and specialized in pivot shots around the basket. Frank Downey, Vic Beaudry and Henry ten Broeke were sharp-shooters on the wings, while Les Belinski and Ron Burritt were used to decided advantage on fast breaks.

Congratulations are extended to Vic Beaudry for making the city All-Star Team. Central players on the Central-Western All-Star team were Joe Ferguson, Jim Hawkes, Les Belinski and Henry ten Broeke.

The team would like to thank Mr. Hackett for his capable coaching and the excessive amount of time that he spent with them.

Junior Boys' Interscholastic Basketball

Central Ramblers again proved their superiority on the basketball court this year by defeating a strong Crescent team to win the T. Eaton Co. Ltd. Trophy, emblematic of the city Junior Basketball Championship. The two teams battled for league leadership throughout the schedule, and at its close, both teams were tied at the top of the league with six wins and two losses. The Crescent team won the first game of the two-game total-point series by three points; however, Central moved ahead in the second game and won the closely matched series by one point.

The Central team was backed by strong reinforcements. John Alexander and Doug Turner proved to be valuable men, gathering in more than their share of rebounds.

Dennis Lawson, Bruce Wallace, Tom Erskine and Joe Fairbanks rounded out the scoring punch on the wings and specialized in both left and right hand shots. The defensive play was led by hard-checking Lionel Ravvin, Sam Goresht, Harold Hanen and Dick Collyer, who proved their ability as playmakers.

The team would like to thank a former Central basketball star, Bill Manarey, for coaching them to victory and teaching them clean-cut basketball.

Senior Boys' House League Basketball

This year Don Macpherson's team won the Senior Boys' House League Championship by defeating Terry Kellam's aggregation in the last of a three game final. Although running in last place through most of the schedule, the team began to pick up when Don Macpherson recovered from his broken leg. Vic Beaudry won the scoring title this year but he was closely followed by Les Belinski.

Because of the rough play and poor officiating, the league had to be postponed midway through the season and a short course for referees was held by Mr. Hackett.

As a result of this instruction, the calibre of play decidedly improved in all leagues.

The boys would like to thank Mr. Brooks for patiently supervising their games during the noon hours.

Junior Boys' House League Basketball

John Allison's power-packed squad, this year, walked away with the Kappa Kappa Tau Trophy, symbolic of the Junior House League Championship.

The other teams in the league were captained by Crawford Smith, Ken Meek and Tom Erskine. In the sudden-death semi-finals, the teams of Smith and Meek battled to the finish.

After six minutes of overtime in the first play-off game, the score was tied; however, in the following game, Smith's team edged out a one-point victory. In the finals, Allison's team walked off with the title in two straight wins. The race for scoring honors was very close, but Stan Harper emerged victorious with sixty-eight points.

Officiating at the games and coaching of the teams was capably handled by boys from the senior house league.

The teams were chosen by the four captains: Ray Roth, Ferdinand Meyer, Leo Jaques and Vaughn Gusa. After ending league play, tied for bottom place, Leo Jaques' team, the decided underdog, showed great comeback power by winning the finals. Dave Campbell was the leading scorer.

Players from Junior and Senior leagues refereed the games.

Interscholastic Ski Team

Central's Ski Team swept away all opposition in the city high school competitions this year by capturing five out of six events. Every member on the team placed well in every event except cross-country in which the team placed last.

The team took honors in the four-way combined downhill slalom and jumping and came last in the one mile cross-country course.

This year the Central team also placed second in the Alberta Provincial Interscholastic Ski Championships. In this same meet they showed they had the top downhill team in the province by edging out Banff by three seconds.

We would like to congratulate Central's Ski Team for bringing back to the Alma Mater five trophies and many medals.

Members of the team are: Wilson Southam, Terry Kellam, Jay Kellam, Barry McPhee, Ryan Adams, Jack Bruce and Basil French.

Senior Girls' Interscholastic Basketball

In the Senior Girls' Interscholastic Basketball the Central girls scored the winning point in the second game of a two-game total-point series to capture the title for the second consecutive year. A three minute overtime was played following a 24-24 tie. This had spectators, teachers, coaches, and players in suspense.

The top team was composed of nine players. In the centre section the superb playing of Jean Collins and Mary Jo Hopping kept the chain of plays working smoothly. The star forwards, DoRae Pilling, Marion King, Carol Holden and Ann Baxter helped to keep the team together, and through their cutting and passing chalked up many points for the team. Heather Symons, Betty Millard, Leona Larsen, and Marion Simpson who, through their spectacular playing and unfailing efforts, proved to be four valuable members on the team line-up.

Our many thanks go to Miss James, Don Macpherson and Terry Kellam, who through their tremendous patience and help made all Central proud of its "Central Senior Team".

This year Central's Badminton Team made a clean sweep of the annual Interscholastic Tournament losing only three of its thirty-two games. Frances Corbet and Doug Horne were the only team from the three schools to win all their games, while the remainder of Central's team lost only one out of eight games.

The composition of the team was as follows:

Team A—Doug Horne, Frances Corbet.

Team B—Craig Fairbairn, Marion King.

Team C—Don Erb, Roberta LeBourveau.

Team D—Jim Scott, Judy Cairns.

The team wishes to thank Mr. Robertson, who coached and organized the team.

The Central Badminton Club has completed another successful year. This year the Junior and Senior Clubs were amalgamated. Tournaments were run at the year's end to pick trophy winners and members of the interscholastic team. Winner of the Phi Beta Phi Trophy for men's singles was Don Erb, with ladies' singles trophy going to Frances Corbett. The mixed doubles were taken by Gail Harrison and Doug Horne.

The 1951-52 executive was as follows:

President .....	Don Erb
Vice-President .....	Doug Horne
Secretary-Treasurer .....	Diana Henderson
Committee Members ....	Bob Alexander, Peter Valentine
Advisors .....	Mr. Robertson, Mr. Carscallen

Special thanks go to Mr. Robertson and Mr. Carscallen whose supervision throughout the year was greatly appreciated.

Curling Club

With a decided increase in curling enthusiasm, the Central Curling Club experienced a fairly successful year. At the organization meeting, which commenced the season's activities, Norman Kirkwold was elected president, and Denis Horne was elected secretary. Two curling teams, A and B, were selected to represent Central in the interscholastic curling league. Team A consisted of Norman Kirkwold, skip, Don Farley, Ed Jorgenson and George Shortt. Team B consisted of Denis Horne, skip, Jack Spratt, Doug Horne and Ken Harkness.

Although Central's A team won the interscholastic league, our entry in the Taylor, Pearson and Carson competition, which consisted of: Norman Kirkwold, Don Farley, Denis Horne and George Shortt, was beaten.

With the experience gained this year, Central's entry in the league next year should be much stronger.

Baseball

Senior Captains ..... Bruce Wallace, Jack Armstrong,
Lee Irvine, Tony Kolber

Junior Captains ..... Dave Patterson, Colin Duncan,
Alistair Justason, Lionel Ravvin

Baseball was the highlight on Central's diamond during the noon hour with keen competition in both leagues.

Wallace's Weepers and Kolber's King Kongs battled it out for the championship, while Armstrong's Amateurs had no trouble in keeping ahead of Irvine's Indians for third position. Although Duncan's Dodgers had tough competition in the Junior Loop, they held the upper hand throughout the season.

GIRLS' BASEBALL

Captains—Elaine Kent, Shirley Brown, Sue Philips, Joanne Eddie.

Grade 10 House League Baseball started after the basketball season and games were played once every three days. However, Track practices interrupted the schedule and play was discontinued. No accurate record of each team's victories was kept, but Elaine Kent's team was outstanding. Barbara Knox was the umpire for the league.

Your Height?: "Five feet."

Weight?: "120 pounds."

Waist?: "23 inches."

Neck?: "Yes, sir."

Prosecuting Attorney (to opponent): "You are the biggest boob in the city."

Judge (rapping for order): "Gentlemen, you forget that I am here."

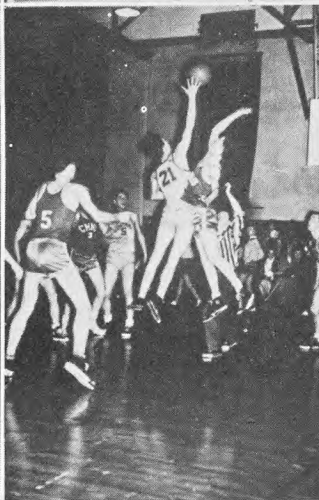

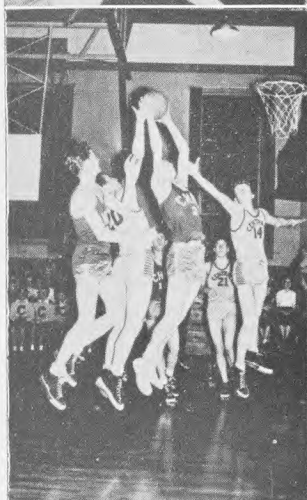

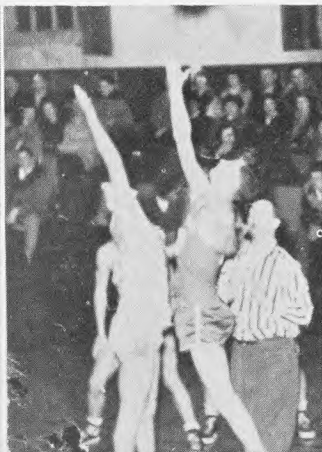

Farmer, ploughing a field with one mare: "Giddap, Babe. Giddap, Lady. Giddap, Sweetheart. Giddap, Queenie."

Passing Stranger: "Why has that mare got all those names?"

Farmer: "Sh! Her name's Bess. But when I put those blinders on her and yell those other names, she thinks she's got all those horses helping her."

Girls' Track

The Central girls wound up the 1951-52 track season with many of the contestants racking up points towards Central's success. Twenty-four points were attained by Central, compared to Crescent's twenty-eight. The Dr. Singleton Cup which Central won last year went to Crescent.

The outstanding performances of Do Rae Pilling, Diane Mason and Marion King set a rapid pace for the other competitors to follow. Individual honors went to Do Rae Pilling for her success in the Dash, High Jump and Running Broad Jump.

The Junior Team was sparked by the performance of Sam Goresht, while Les Belinski led the Senior Team with one first, and two seconds. Winston Churchill led the Intermediate Team with ten points and won the individual award in this division. Two new records were set by Central:
